

Town And Country Players Present...

Summer Children's Theater Workshop!!

Week 1: Grades 3-5

July 28 – August 1

Week 2: Grades 6-9

August 4 - 8

8:30am-3:30pm

Come join our professional staff of directors, musicians, dancers, costumers and makeup artists for an exciting and educational look at musical theater, and theater plays. Come take a behind the scenes look at what goes on in an active theater!

Participants in the workshop will take part in the magical and enchanting world of theater and take classes such as: makeup and hairstyling, theater history, dance, voice and musical theater, improvisation, acting, lighting and sound, and also perform a musical/dance number and perform in a short play written by the workshop director Kyrus Westcott. The play is open to the public and begins at 2pm the final Friday of each workshop.

For more information please visit the Town and Country Players website at www.townandcountryplayers.org or contact Nikki Paulino @ 215-208-8884 or nppaulino@gmail.com

Tuition for the summer workshop is $300 per child or at a special Early Bird Discount of $260 if money is sent in before April 1, 2008

The Town and Country Players' Barn is located on Route 263 (York Road) in rural Buckingham, Pennsylvania, 1 mile north of Route 313 and 1 mile south of Route 413.

Town and Country Players is a non-profit 501(c)(3) entity.

