

2009-2010 CB SOUTH CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS

Amnesty International

Advisor: Serena Jimenez

Description: This club focuses on promoting human rights through public awareness, letter writing campaigns, volunteering and fundraisers. This is the ideal club for students who want to speak out against injustice around the world.

Meeting: Monthly, TBD, 2:45 PM, Room B207

Badminton Club

Advisor: Mr. Brad Helsel

Description: This club will give students the opportunity to have a place to play badminton a few hours a week and get to know other students that enjoy playing badminton.

Meeting: Dates TBD 2:30-4 in the main gym.

Break-Dancing club

Advisor: Maureen Riley

Description: Break-dance is a form of hip-hop dancing which is popularly known throughout the world. Any students who like to break-dance and students who want to learn break-dance are invited to attend this club. This club is a great opportunity to learn all the different moves. Through break-dancing, we will continue to progress individually and as a team.

Meeting: Thursdays, 5:30 pm in Room C211

CBTV

Advisors: Jim Bunn, Jayne Pimentel

Description: This club involves television productions for the school and community.

Meeting: Wednesdays, 2:45 pm, TV studio, B222

Chemistry Club

Advisor: Marcy Gever

Description: The American Chemical Society Chem Club is for students who are interested in exploring the fun side of chemistry and topics that extend beyond the class courses.

Meeting: Once a Month, Room C322

Chess Club

Advisor: Maria Sordi

Description: The Chess Club is open to all students who are interested in the game of chess. Students with no experience as well as seasoned players are welcome to take part in casual, non-competitive matches.

Meeting: Once a month, Room C334

Christian Fellowship Club

Advisor: Sharon Chittick

Description: This club brings students of the Christian Faith together. It serves to encourage each other in their beliefs.

Meeting: Day and Time TBA, Room C122

Creative Writing Club

Advisor: Ondrea Reisinger, Elizabeth Esris and Will Melvin

Description: This club is for students who have a passion for writing and like to give and get feedback. Each meeting begins with a writing activity, followed by sharing and critique. Many of our writings get submitted to contests and to our South Literary Magazine.

Meeting: Wednesdays, Room C203

Dance Club

Advisor: Lauren Woehr

Description: Students in the dance club will learn about different types of dance, such as swing, tango, ballroom, jazz, ballet, Latin and hip hop. They also hope to perform at the South Variety Show and other school events.

Meeting: Day and Time TBA, Room C102

Environmental Club

Advisor: Ian Smith and Jeffrey Layton

Description: This club focuses on recycling in the school, as well as local beautification projects, supporting nature centers, competing in the regional Envirothon and offering learning experiences about the environment.

Meeting: Once a month, 2:45 pm, Room C217

Fellowship of Christian Athletes

Advisor: Jeff Lake

Description: This club brings athletes of the Christian Faith together. It serves to encourage each other in their beliefs and further educate the athletes about what it means to be a Christian athlete.

Meeting: Monthly meeting, Room C131

French Honor Society

Advisor: Marie Chemin and Amy Mark

Description: This society is for students who achieve an A- or higher in French 3 or 4 and a B+ or higher in French 5. We will conduct a community service project and we will meet for various fun cultural activities. Please see Advisors for more information and application form.

Meeting: Monthly meetings, Room C233

Future Business Leaders of America

Advisors: Betsey Coyne

Description: This is a national organization for students planning careers in Business. In February, the FBLA hosts a regional leadership conference where members from Bucks County chapters compete in contests such as accounting, business law, business communications, marketing and computer concepts.

Meeting: Twice monthly, Room C324

Gay Straight Alliance

Advisor: J. Perry

Description: This group is for students who are dedicated to promoting a more tolerant and safe environment for all students at CB South. All students are welcome.

Meeting: Every other Monday, room C204

German Honor Society

Advisor: Mr. Robert Obinger

Description: This society is for students who achieve an A- or higher in German 3 and 4 and a B+ or higher in German 5. We will conduct a community service project and we will meet for various fun cultural activities. Please see Advisor for more information and application form.

Meeting: Monthly Meetings, Room TBA

Interact Club

Advisor: Siobhan LaCreta and Jennifer Coates

Description: Interact is a Rotary-sponsored service club that provides students an opportunity to participate in fun, meaningful service projects. Interact clubs perform at least two projects a year, with one serving the community and the other furthering international understanding. Last semester, our group at South helped make "Breakfast Bags" for the Aid for Friends organization. Becoming involved with this club is a great way to develop leadership skills and make new friends.

Meeting: TBA, 2:45 pm, Room C111

Japanese Culture Club

Advisor: TBA

Description: Students interested in learning more about the culture, language, cuisine, and the art of Japan are invited to attend this club. If you are an anime fan, fond of DDR, or just want to learn something new about another country, this is the club for you.

Meeting: Every other Monday, Room 301

Jazz Band

Advisor: Michael Robinson

Description: Student groups made up of the top jazz musicians at CB South. Group performs in late winter and early spring at jazz competitions in the region, as well as holiday and spring concerts. Competition begins in February, the band rehearsal is once a week during competition season

Meeting: This is a class that meets during the day. Rehearsals are Thursday evening from 6:30-9:00pm during competition season.

Jewish Culture Club

Advisor: Elizabeth Esris

Description: This club will meet to explore the history, geography, and culture of Judaism. The club will be student driven; members will plan and conduct meetings.

Meeting: Second Tuesday of every month, Room C101

Key Club

Advisor: Shirley Kutz

Description: This club is a community service organization sponsored by Kiwanis of Doylestown. Members organize and participate in various community fundraisers and projects that benefit others. Activities include participation in Oktoberfest, Relay for Life, Boy and Girl Clubs, Aid for Friends Soup Kitchen and Adopt a Soldier. All students are welcome.

Meeting: Monthly, 3rd Thursday, 2:45pm, Forum room

Korean Life Club

Advisor: Lauren Woehr

Description: Activities in this club include learning about Korean history, the language and the culture.

Meeting: Twice a month, Room C204

Latin Honor Society

Advisor: TBA

Description:

Meeting:

Marching Band - Fall

Advisor: Michael Robinson

Description: Group consists of students who play a variety of instruments and students in the color guard. Band travels to all football games and competes in various competitions.

Meeting: Mon, Wed., Thurs, 6:30-9:00pm. Friday nights, and competitions on Saturdays.

Math Club

Advisor: Kristen McCuen, Christopher McGlone

Description:

Meeting:

Men's Ensemble

Advisor: Cynthia Young

Description: This club is by audition for guys in full year choir class who are ready to work in a more solo oriented style.

Meeting: Tuesdays, 4:30-5:30pm, in choir room

Metotep Literary/Art Magazine

Advisor: Jennifer Tannous

Description: Metotep, an original word derived from the Greek and Egyptian roots that mean "beyond creative offerings," is the name of the South Literary and Art magazine. It is created, designed, and produced entirely by students from throughout the school. We always welcome your input so please join us.

Meeting: Thursdays, 2:45-3:45pm, Room C226

Mock Trial Team

Advisor: Mr. Paul Hamilton

Description: This club has a defense team and a plaintiff team, made up of three attorneys and two witnesses. Our defense team competes against the plaintiff from another school and then our plaintiff team competes against a defense team from another school. You win by how well you present your case and how well your witnesses perform.

Meeting: starting in Mid October, or stop and see Mr. Hamilton in Room C106

National Honor Society

Advisor: Helena Buzin

Description:

Meeting: 2nd Tuesday of the month, 2:45 PM in the Forum

Opera Club

Advisor: Elizabeth Esris

Description: This is a club for those who would like to learn about the form of ultimate musical theater know as opera. This is the second year for this club. Its survival depends upon the interest of its members.

Meeting: Once or twice a month, Day and time TBA, Room C101

Operation Eternal Gratitude

Advisor: Barbara May and Frank Woodring

Description: A military support club who arose in the aftermath of 9/11. Members of OEG initiate projects to assist the deployed of the armed services as well as the family members at home. OEG has engaged in many service related assignments from care packages to the Middle East to holiday gifts for military children. Members are encouraged to seek new sponsorships to meet the needs of those in service to our country.

Meetings: Flexible and varied

People for Pets

Advisor: Lauren Woehr

Description:

Meetings: Every other Friday, after school, Room C102

POPS-Power of Positive Students

Advisor: Helena Buzin

Description: This club is a community service and awareness group. We train with the Red Cross to peer teach AIDS prevention and awareness at the middle schools.

Meeting: Thursdays, starting 9/17, Room C321

Reading Olympics

Advisor: Matthew Pecic

Description: The CB South Reading Olympics encourages students to read more than they currently do, to read a greater variety of books, and to enjoy the excitement of reading and talking about books (we also eat a lot of pizza, butter cake, and other goodies). The team format encourages students to share the challenge of reading the selection of books with their friends. The Reading Olympics competition is the culmination of the program that has teams of students reading books from a prepared list for several months prior to the final event. Each team consists of 8 to 14 students who agree to read from groups of 45 books appropriate for their age and reading level.

Meeting: Day and time TBA, Library

Scholars' Bowl

Advisor: Laura Malick-Glaudel

Description: An Academic Quiz Team for students who are interested in information and competition. Club will meet once a week for a few months in the middle of the school year to practice for quizzing competitions, usually in February and March. Questions are about trivia from history, art, science, literature, culture, etc.

Meeting: Thursdays, 2:45-4:00pm, Room 302,

Science Olympiad Team

Advisor: Helena Buzin and Vello Vilbas

Description: An Academic Science Team for students who are interested in science concepts and competition. The club will meet once a week from early November to late April to practice for competitions. Regional, State and National competitions are usually held in late February and late April. There are 23 different events in science and technology.

Meeting: Mondays, 2:45-3:45 pm, Room C316.

South Titan Thespians

Advisors: John Crea, Sarah LeClair, Drew Jacob

Description: Students and staff mount two productions a year: a fall play and spring musical. The club also organizes and hosts the spring talent show and is periodically involved in Doylestown's First Friday.

Meeting: First Meeting, Thursday 9/3/09 after school in the auditorium

Fall play auditions: Tuesday, 9/8/09 after school in the auditorium

South Titan Thespian Tech Club

Advisors: Drew Jacob and Gerry Armani

Description: The Titan Thespian Techies are a satellite of the Titan Thespians. As a group we support and enhance the Titan Thespian productions of the fall play and the spring musical. Participants should have a desire to learn all the ins and outs of sound, lights and behind the scenes aspects of theatre. Prior knowledge of technical equipment is not a requirement but techies should be ready to learn and teach others about what they have learned. We encounter new aspects of theatre every new season with every new production. We are an integral part of the Titan Thespians.

Meeting: The group meets almost every Tuesday after school until 5 P.M. in the auditorium and other days as necessary (decided in league with the Titan Thespian schedule). See Mr. Jacob for details.

Spanish Honor Society

Advisor: Stacy Gray and Brooke Reed

Description: This society is for students who achieve a B+ or higher in Spanish 3, 4, 5 or AP. Each semester, language teachers will invite students who have achieved this goal to fill out a form for induction. Activities include Community Service, School Service and language activities.

Meeting: Monthly meetings in Room C332

Symphonic Chorale

Advisor: Cynthia Young

Description: Chorale is an open membership for all students registered for chorus and choir during the school day. This group travels to a National Choral Festival each year.

Meeting: Selected Thursday evenings

Titan Chamber Singers

Advisor: Cynthia Young

Description: This club is by audition for mixed voices of strength with strong music reading ability as well as vocal technique. Students must be registered in choir class for the year.

Meeting: Tuesdays, 3:30-4:30 pm, in Choir Room

Titan Tribune - Newspaper

Advisor: Lauren Woehr

Description: You will have the opportunity to research and write articles, edit, take photographs, and/or design layout for the school paper.

Meetings: Thursdays, 2:45 pm in Room C218 (Media Publications)

Ultimate Frisbee Club

Advisor: Christina Ford, Jeffrey Layton

Description: Ultimate Frisbee is a club sport in which participants determine their level of commitment. The club is meant to serve as an outlet for those interested in learning the game and promoting the ideas of competitive play and sportsmanship. Members will meet when possible to learn, play and compete against other clubs. Above all, the club will serve to promote fair play, exercise and competition.

Meeting: Date and Time TBA

Video Gamers Club

Advisor: James Kearney

Description: Video Gamers Club is an opportunity for students who share an interest in the art of video gaming to get together and discuss video games as well as play some games.

Meeting: Second Friday of each month, 2:40 pm, Room C104

Women's Chorale

Advisor: Cynthia Young

Description: This club is by audition for girls in full year choir class who wish to perform treble choir music with stronger voices across the grade levels.

Meeting: Tuesdays, 2:40-3:30 pm, Choir Room

World Affairs Club

Advisor: Kevin Cawley and Jim Kearney

Description: Also known as WAC, this club is an organization designed for students who w to discuss national political issues and global events. The club holds weekly meetings throughout the school year, providing students with a forum to debate topics using parliamentary procedure. The club enables many to develop leadership skills. WAC members participate in the district's Model Congress (which will be hosted this year by CB South) and Model United Nations. A select team will represent CB South at Academic World Quest sponsored by the World Affairs Council of Philadelphia. Members also have the chance to attend, through scholarships from the World Affairs Council of Philadelphia's educational program, seminars and speeches given by regional, national, and world leaders.

Meeting: Weekly, Room C207

Young Democrats Club

Advisor: Matthew Smith

Description: Members of the Young Democrats Club participate in a variety of activities at South and in the local community. From helping local candidates, to running a voter-registration drive, to going Trick -or-Voting, Young Democrats are out there making their voices heard.

Meeting: Meetings are as needed in room C206 after school.

Young Republicans Club

Advisor: Verne Shuttleworth

Description: Our goal is to assist students in becoming active, political members of society, now and in the future, by providing them opportunities to educate themselves about the issues that affect our country and develop a better understanding of the stance of the Republican Party on these issues. Some of the activities that students are involved in include: bi-monthly meetings, fund raising, inviting guest speakers, organizing the Voter Registration Drive at South (in cooperation with the Young Democrats) and accepting invitations to participate at the polls.

Meeting: Wednesdays after school, Room C306

If you are interested in any of these clubs or organizations, please contact the Advisor listed.